Dear Jim,

Thanks for the SASE and your letter to the HBC that probably will get no response.

It is all done but as you will in time learn, some of your sources are not all dependable. If HBC cares that much about anything other than money they should heed your letter in the future.

I suppose that those who care assume that such a book passed authentic peer reviews. Of which there were none.

If they do respond, why not suggest that they ask Random House for copies of the peer reviews?

Since you last wrote I've been told that NEVER AGAIN! is now slated for April publication.

Thanks and best wishes,

Harold
